about PITON WEALTH

Piton Wealth is an independent practice of Thrivent Financial. Their team of advisors specializes in estate, wealth, and charitable planning, as well as business succession and executive compensation planning for high net-worth families, business owners, and senior executives. Individual advisors also serve specialized groups, including scientists, engineers, divorcees and widow(er)s. Their unique approach to planning, The Navigated Journey™, helps guide clients to the peak of their financial goals.

about AARON ELLS

Aaron Ells, Wealth Advisor, has been a practicing Financial Professional with Thrivent Financial since 2013. In addition to obtaining his Bachelor of Arts in Sociology degree from Pacific Lutheran University, Aaron has earned his Certified Financial Planner® certification. Aaron and his wife, Brooke, have been married for 22 years, and together have two sons, Sam and Liam. Outside of the practice, Aaron enjoys family time in the great outdoors exploring the trails, lakes, and rivers of Northwest Montana. Aaron also enjoys coaching basketball and watching Sam & Liam in their various athletic endeavors.
